

RISING 10TH- 12TH GRADE SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENTS

PLEASE SEE BELOW FOR EACH GRADE'S REQUIRED ASSIGNMENT

Summer 2011 Rising Senior Reading Assignment

- All rising seniors are required to read And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie.
- Please keep a list of questions from each chapter as you are reading, for which you will receive a grade.
  - Questions can be either about something you did not understand, why things happened as they did, or they may stem from your own thoughts about why a character behaved or thought they way they did.
  - During the first week of school in August, your class will discuss the novel. The basis of the discussion will evolve from your list of questions.
- At the end of the first week of school, you will take a test on And Then There Were None.

Summer 2011 Rising Junior Reading Assignment

- All rising juniors are required to read Zeitoun by Dave Eggers.
- Please keep a list of questions from each chapter as you are reading, for which you will receive a grade.
  - Questions can be either about something you did not understand, why things happened as they did, or they may stem from your own thoughts about why a character behaved or thought they way they did.
  - During the first week of school in August, your class will discuss the novel. The basis of the discussion will evolve from your list of questions.
- At the end of the first week of school, you will take a test on Zeitoun.

Summer 2011 Rising Sophomores Reading Assignment

All rising juniors are required to read Around the World in Eighty Days by Jules Verne.

- Please keep a list of questions from each chapter as you are reading, for which you will receive a grade.
  - Questions can be either about something you did not understand, why things happened as they did, or they may stem from your own thoughts about why a character behaved or thought they way they did.
  - During the first week of school in August, your class will discuss the novel. The basis of the discussion will evolve from your list of questions.
- At the end of the first week of school, you will take a test on Around the World in Eighty Days.